Dear Ms. Strickland,

Thank you very much for the important bit of information on Capt L. Bonet you provided us earlier this week. We appreciate the extra effort you made in locating the newspaper article.

Previously, we had searched the Census Records, contacted the Vital Records Departments in MS, AL, and LA, and searched various county records to no avail.

There is a family verbal history that relates that Mr Bonet and his wife, Anna St. John Bonet are buried in Griffin Cemetery in Moss Point. The grave-sites were marked with wooden crosses. We had earlier contacted Mr Neal Cirlot, a Griffin Cemetery Trustee, however he was unable to confirm the interment of the Bonet's given the information we provided.

There is also a family story that Anna St John was born on the Blackhawk Plantation in Vidalia, LA, (perhaps around 1850) and that she had been educated at a "Finishing School" in Maryland. Thereafter, she married Lorenzo Bonet and settled in the Moss Point / Escatawba area. For a while she was a school teacher and taught French. She also worked as a Bookkeeper for the Danzler Lumber Company. Each work day she was rowed back and forth across the River from Escatawba to Moss Point by a colored man. One day she suffered a stroke and died shortly afterwards. She was still a young woman when this occurred. We do not have any additional information on Anna St John but believe that this occurred around 1885.

The information that you provided during our telephone conversation last week regarding the Marriage of Rose Bonet, the oldest daughter of Lorenzo & Anna St John Bonet to Walter Kollin was also much appreciated. It turns out that this Walter Kollin is the Grandfather of Judge Walter Kollin, presently the Judge of the Criminal Court in New Orleans. We recently contacted him to discuss the Bonet's.

With the information you have provided we are now confident that Lorenzo Bonet is in fact buried in Griffin Cemetery. It is also most likely that Anna St. John Bonet is also buried there but we have yet to confirm this.

I am enclosing a couple of dollars to defray the cost of postage and copying that you so graciously provided.

Again, many thanks for helping us to locate this critical bit of information.

Sincerely,

Joseph S. McCollum
